TWO DIVORCES ASKED FOR IN THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT

Alleging that her husband wilfully deserted her July 11, 1913, and has since remained away without any cause, Ruby Elmira Stone has requested the court to sever the matrimonial bonds which united her to Leonard George Stone, May 4th, 1910. The couple were married in Ogden and have two children, Ernest, 4 years old, and June Lillian, age 3 years. The mother asks their custody.

Having failed to support her for the last several months when he is "abundantly able" to do so, Agnes E. Larson desires that he be granted a release from her obligations as a wife to Arthur E. Larson. The wife asks for $20 per month alimony as she considers that sum a reasonable proportion of $130, her husband's monthly wages.

They were married at Farmington, January 28th, 1913.

CHANGES ARE MADE IN RAILROAD TIME TABLE

Two changes have been made in the local union depot passenger train schedules since the issuing of the last time card. Oregon Short Line train No. 3 now arrives at the station at 3:55, instead of 3:35 p. m., and departs for Salt Lake City at 4:05, instead of 4:45 p. m.

Denver & Rio Grande train No. 15 now arrives at 12:15 a. m., instead of 11:30 p. m., according to the schedule issued June 15.

CELEBRATION WILL BE ONE OF GREAT INTEREST

The Daughters of the Pioneers of Weber county are sponsors for what promises to be the greatest celebration in honor of the advent of the Pioneers, since the event in Salt Lake City in 1897. It is to be given in Ogden, and the citizens of the city are united and enthusiastic in their efforts to make it a most important event in the lives of the founders of this great commonwealth.

An elaborate pageant will depict the growth and development of the state, from the wild, barren desert to its present condition. The story will be pictured by Indians; the hunters and trappers; Franciscan Fathers; Pioneers with their ox teams, hand carts and prairie schooners; pony express and stage coach; first governor, county and city officials.

Following these will be elaborate floats, showing the state and community growth, besides artistic representations of the Daughters of Pioneers, Beehive Girls, kindergartens, Battleship Utah, Uncle Sam and the coming of the unions.

Music will be furnished by some of the best organizations of the state, and, during the program, addresses will be made by Pres. Joseph F. Smith, Gov. Wm. Spry, Bishop Joseph S. Glass and other representative men and women.

In the afternoon, there will be a baseball game, and an important wrestling match. For the children, a merry-go-round, Ferris wheel, dancing and all sorts of amusements will be provided.

In the early evening, all traffic in the business district will be suspended for an elaborate parade of decorated baby carriages for which cash prizes are to be awarded. The day will close with a magnificent display of fireworks. The committee in charge of this feature has given its assurance that it will be the finest exhibition ever given in the state.

LOCAL FORD AUTO AGENCY BOUGHT BY E. O. WATTIS

E. O. Wattis has purchased the entire stock and business of the local Ford Automobile agency, at the corner of Twenty-sixth street and Washington avenue, and the business hereafter will be conducted by Wm. R. Kimball, as secretary and treasurer, with E. C. Binford manager, of a new company of which Mr. Wattis will be president.

The business is to be continued at the present place and a number of improvements may be decided on at a later date.

Mr. Kimball, who is a son-in-law of Mr. Wattis, is at present in charge of a large manufacturing plant in Chicago. He will resign his position and make Ogden his home.

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE FORMED BY LOCAL REPUBLICANS

An organization formed, it is stated, to promote cleaner political campaigns, was completed last night at the Eagles' club, and will assume the title of the Weber County Republican League. The new organization has a membership of 239 and plans to act as an aid to the official Republican leagues and support the state and state county tickets.

Max Davidson was elected president, W. B. Wilson, vice president and Earl Peterson, secretary. The executive committee is composed of the foregoing officers and the following representatives of the municipal wards: E. R. Geiger, First ward; C. A. Bass, Second ward; Charles Mangel, Third ward; W. Toler, Fourth ward; William Doyle, Fifth ward. Committees on membership and constitution also were appointed.

MUSIC COMPANY GIVES AN OUTING

The Glen Brothers—Roberts Music company of Ogden and Salt Lake entertained its employees and their families yesterday with an outing in Ogden valley, the occasion marking the inauguration of an annual event of the kind. In addition to the local employees of the Ogden and Salt Lake stores, which were closed for the day, the agency and traveling representatives of the company also enjoyed the treat.

Under the direction of Wilford B. Shurtliff and Thomas J. Holland, who formed the arrangement committee, the party assembled at the Glen Brothers—Roberts music store on Hudson avenue, at 10 a. m., and shortly afterward boarded an Ogden canyon trolley car. The trolley ride was to the power dam, near the head of the canyon and the excursionists were met at this point by members of the firm in automobiles, and taken to the Winters ranch and camp in Ogden valley.

A picnic lunch of generous proportions was the first event on the program, and after all appetites had been appeased, an impromptu program of speeches was carried out. The speakers were George S. Glen, Jay Glen

CANDIDATE FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP OF UTAH

Edward E. Jenkins, candidate for governor, accompanied by his campaign manager, Col. A. P. Kesler, and David A. Smith, arrived in Ogden this morning to look over the political field.

Mr. Jenkins is opposing Governor Spry for the honor of heading the Republican ticket and he is confident of breaking in on the local combination which has promised the governor a solid Weber delegation.

Mr. Jenkins says he is not in accord with Governor Spry on the liquor question and is not appealing for that support as he believes the wishes of the people of Utah on the liquor issue should be respected.
